

BETTER BATHROOMS & KITCHENS

HOTEL LUXE

MONOCHROME CHIC

Since its establishment in 1999, Better Bathrooms & Kitchens' aim has been to provide the Victorian market with top-quality bespoke cabinetry, never compromising on materials or craftsmanship. Reminiscent of a luxury bathroom one would find in a 5-star hotel, this Kew project is no exception.

Creating a sophisticated wallpaper-like look, subtle damask-patterned tiles are found on the bathroom's feature walls, complementing the large-format floor and wall tiles. An Abey skylight bathes the space in natural light and works with the downlights to ensure the bathroom's dark colour palette doesn't make the space feel gloomy.

No luxury bathroom would be complete without a bath to relax in, so Better Bathrooms & Kitchens selected a Villeroy & Boch Oberon rectangular bath, complete with a Grohe Lineare bath mixer.

An Argent Trend 1400mm wall-hung vanity is complete with a Bette Aqua single-bowl basin and Gohe Lineare basin mixers, while a large wall mirror helps keep the space light and bright.

A frameless glass showerscreen prevents the space from feeling closed in, with the simple, minimalist design of the Dorf Arc shower system perfectly suited to the contemporary style of this bathroom.
