

BETTER BATHROOMS & KITCHENS

CLASSIC MEETS CONTEMPORARY

AN ELEGANT EXTENSION

Not only do the staff at Better Bathrooms & Kitchens do it better when it comes to bathroom and kitchen projects – they do their best! This stunning kitchen, designed by the company's Karen Agnew, is a fusion of classic and contemporary.

With its striking black and white colour palette – a mixture of dark Baltic pine, and contrasting Tesrol satin two-pack doors and panels – this kitchen exudes subtle luxury. The dark flooring works well in the space, adding warmth and preventing the crisp white from appearing too stark. The overall result is an airy, light-filled area with a fresh and elegant aesthetic.

There is no denying that Better Bathrooms & Kitchens has designed a beautiful space but this kitchen is more than just a pretty face. Functionality was a key consideration for this project, and with its open walkways, streamlined design and abundance of storage, this kitchen is built with the whole family in mind.

A natural Carrara marble honed benchtop with waterfall ends provides an ideal gathering point for entertaining and family time, while the marble adds a touch of polish. The bench proved to be an architectural challenge thanks to the existing support beam positioned at one corner, however Better Bathrooms & Kitchens managed to seamlessly integrate the beam into the overall design of the space.

Previously, a wall stood level with the beam. Better Bathrooms & Kitchens removed the wall, extending the kitchen onto the outdoor decking. This extension meant that walls, flooring, original decking and stairs had to be removed and rebuilt, creating a larger and more spacious kitchen.

Located in the well-established suburb of Ascot Vale, Better Bathrooms & Kitchens specialises in kitchen, bathroom and laundry projects. The company is highly sought-after, particularly for the renovation of older homes in need of a modern update.

The company services Melbourne and surrounds and has the resources to travel for special projects, extending its reach to Greater Melbourne and country Victoria.
